Free Ice Cream For Kids On The Fourth Of July

Many Arlington youngsters had a happier Fourth of July as the result of the generosity of the proprietors of the Melrose Spa at 152 Massachusetts avenue.

With the intense heat making everyone a bit uncomfortable, John Lambiase and Pat Mucci, two former G. I.'s who run the Melrose Spa, decided to do their bit to help out.

Free ice cream was their answer and several gallons of their delicious ice cream was handed out to the youngsters of their neighborhood, who will remember John and Pat as a couple of fellows who really like the kids.

MISS WHEATLEY WEDS R. C. ABRAHAMSON IN COLORFUL CEREMONY

One of the most delightful weddings of the summer season was solemnized on June 25, at eight p.m., at St. John's Episcopal Church, Pleasant Street, Arlington, when Miss Margaret Louise Wheatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Wheatley, of 99 Mt. Vernon Street, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Robert Carl Abrahamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrahamson, of 103 Mt. Vernon Street, Arlington.

Rev. Halsey Irwin Andrews, rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman. He was assisted by the Rev. Charles Taber Hall, of Amesbury, former rector of St. John's Church, who performed the marriage ceremony for the parents of the bride at their wedding twenty six years ago, in the old St. John's Church. Louis T. Phelps was organist and Miss Ruth Hanson, of Springfield, a college classmate of the bride rendered several appropriate solos.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a rich white satin gown with tiny Empire waistline, topped by a wide off the shoulder shawl collar and filmy net to the neckline. The tiny waist was set off by a cascading bustle in the back and extended down to a long, luxurious train. Her finger tip length veil of imported illusion was caught to a satin sweetheart headpiece with a backing of pleated net. A cascade bouquet of white delphinium, stephanotis and white orchid completed her costume.

The maid of honor, Miss Joan

Lyell, of Fall River, a college friend, wore a gown of lime green taffeta with bustle back similar to the bride's and carried a basket bouquet of yellow daisy chrysanthemums with matching head band.

The four bridesmaids were Miss Mary Mourison, Sutton, N. H., a cousin of the bride; Miss Carolyn Wheatley, Springfield, cousin of the bride; Miss Mary Jennison, of Worcester, college friend of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth T. McKown, Northampton, college classmate of the bride.

They were gowned in orchid taffeta gowns styled identical to that of the maid of honor and carried basket bouquets of white scabiosa with matching headbands.

The Junior bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth Wheatley, of Groton, a cousin of the bride, who was lovely in yellow taffeta styled in keeping with the gowns of other attendants. She carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow marguerites and white delphinium with matching head band.

"YELLOW ROSES"

Have you seen the mile-long hedges of red ramblers roses, blossoming along the stonewalls of the roadside in Carlisle, near the beautiful estate of Ed Kemp, the candy man?

Hundreds of motorists in June, forsake beaten paths to sojourn along country byways, where the ramblers are putting on a show of unforgettable beauty.

Despite the drought, this seems to be a rose year. Roses were never more plentiful. Kemp's is only one of many gorgeous displays which meet the eye of the traveler throughout New England. Roses tumble over gray walls, peek through fences and arbors, they climb and stand alone, everywhere acclaimed as America's favorite blooms.

Now June, the month of brides and roses, has made its exit in a glory of color and fragrance. Even with lawns parched and dry, roses still remain breathtaking in their beauty.

Yellow roses! Did you love them in childhood days? I think of a garden of an old house atop the slopes of Mount Monadnock, and an old lady of ninety years, who lived there. I wonder if they still are blooming in that garden, unattended and unwatered, for the benefit of the passerby, although their owner must long since have passed on to tend her flowers in some celestial garden.

"Arlington At Play"

It would seem to us that the Arlington playground activities have not received enough recognition and cooperation in the past for their roles as the most important element in community recreation work.

A recent report by the National Recreation Association reveals some interesting data. It shows that the expenditure for playground upkeep in the United States last year, topped the one hundred million mark, or nearly double the amount spent for the same purposes in 1946.

This is proof of a healthy expansion and a growing awareness of the value of the playground program in keeping the youth of the community off the street.

The report further shows that 318,000,000 persons visited 13,500 play areas in some two thousand reporting communities, with pastimes ranging from softball for the young, to square dancing for the old.

The picture this year in Arlington is one of closely knit activity which helps bolster the fabric of community life. The cooperation of every citizen should be willingly given to the hard-working members of the Park Commission and allied groups, in their endeavors to make Arlington a happy and sane place for the young people of our community.

COLORFUL SETTING FOR RIBEIRO-MARTIS NUPTIALS

Given in marriage by her father and gowned in Chantilly lace trimmed ivory satin, Miss Barbara E. Martis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher J. Martis, of Arlington, recent ceremony in St. Agnes Church, with Joseph A. Ribeiro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Ribeiro, of Lowell. Rev. Francis J. Ryan, S. J. officiated. A wedding reception followed the ceremony in the Sheraton Room of the Copley Plaza Hotel.

Ivory satin matching her gown, fashioned the bride's tiara, which held an illusion fingertip veil. White orchids centered the bouquet of white roses and stephanotis which she carried. A pale pink picture hat topped the gown of raspberry chiffon over taffeta worn by the honor maid, Miss Rose McCable, of Arlington, and the same soft shade of pink was featured in the cascade bouquet of gladioli which she carried.

The Misses Marion Lyons and Frances Lynch, of Cambridge, were lovely in their picture hats of matching horsehair topping their twin lime gowns. Yellow gladioli made up their bouquets. Taking honors as flower girl was Miss Patricia Ann Buchanan of Cambridge, multi colored sweet peas accenting her frock of orchid taffeta.

Joseph Grenda, of Lowell, was best man for Mr. Ribeiro, whose ushers included Manuel Freitas, and Alfred Sousa, both of Lowell.

The couple plan an extended wedding trip through northern New York state.

Mrs. Ribeiro, a graduate of Sargent College, was commissioned at Fitzsimmons General Hospital, in Colorado, later serving at Oliver General Hospital, Georgia, as a lieutenant with the medical corps. Her husband is a veteran of five years service in the Army field artillery.

MISS WHEATLEY—

The best man was Ernest Garlepy of Arlington a high school classmate of the bridegroom.

The ushers included: William Keech, Fall River; James Brown, Cambridge; George E. Wheatley, Jr., Groton, a cousin of the bride; John L. Wheatley, Jr., Arlington, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was lovely in powder blue gown with matching hat and corsage of yellow roses and blue delphinium.

The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua crepe gown with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The guest book was in charge of Miss Irene Carroll of Arlington, college classmate of the bride.

The bride graduated from Arlington High school with the class of 1944 and from the Fitchburg State Teachers College, class of 1948. She has just completed her first year of teaching at the Hyde school, Newton Highlands.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Arlington high school, class of '40 and graduated from Harvard College in 1948, after serving with the Army Air Forces, three and one half years during World War II. He is now attending Harvard Graduate school.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the Parish Hall, which was decorated with smilax, ferns, baskets of white gladiolus, white delphinium and white stock. The bridal couple were assisted in receiving, by the maid of honor and best man, and the parents of the bride and groom. Music was furnished by "Brooks' Trio."

Following an extended wedding trip, the couple will reside in Newton Highlands.

WED IN ARLINGTON

Amid a floral decor of woodwardia, white gladioli, lilies and delphinium, Miss Patricia Lee Caulkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Caulkins, of Arlington, was wed at a recent afternoon ceremony in the Pleasant Street Congregational church, to Douglas Whitney Allart, of Sherman, New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Allart.

With the Rev. David Colwell officiating, the bride pronounced her "I do's" in lustrous ivory bridal satin, with trim of Duchess lace. Matching lace, worn previously by her mother and maternal grandmother, fashioned the crown which held her chapel length veil of French illusion, while white sweetheart roses and stephanotis were combined in her bouquet.

ington for more than 25 years.

Rep. Keenan Works On Study Of Spy Pond Conditions

Representative Henry E. Keenan informed the Arlington Press that he has been working with the department of Public Health and Department of Inland Waterways in charge of Great Ponds relative to improving the sanitary conditions in Spy Pond, Arlington. It appears that Spy Pond comes under the classification of a Great Pond and comes under the jurisdiction of the State. Their only function is to supervise the use of the pond in as far as the privileges of fishing, boating and encroachments upon the pond. The department of Public Health can only enter into the picture in the event that it becomes a health menace and they would then work in conjunction with the local board of health to correct this condition.

In connection with recent complaints to Representative Keenan, the local Board of Health and the Park Department have cleared up the pond along the Linwood Beach shore. The weed condition that exists in the pond is a marine growth that develops as soon as the water drops below the 8 foot depth and these weeds will not grow through sandy soil if the same existed in the pond.

Furthermore, there is an outlet at Concord Turnpike where there is a water gate under the control of the State Department of Public Works. The level at this gate has got to be maintained between 7 1/2 and 8 1/2 feet. As soon as the level goes over the 8 1/2 foot mark, the cellars become flooded in that area of the pond. Therefore, when the water is maintained at about an 8 foot depth in that water gate, the overall depth of the pond varies; and where the water drops below 8 feet, this weed condition develops.

The State, through the local bord of health, watches the pond in as far as mosquito control and also supplies a chemical that will destroy the algae that results from this weed growth, but it will not kill the weeds.

When the ice companies in the past, used to cut in the pond, during the summer months, they raked the bottom of the pond with mud hooks and eliminated this weed growth to assure clear ice in the winter time. This appears to be the only practical way to eliminate this weed growth.

Representative Keenan has called for a study by the State Board of Health and Inland Waterways to determine if the state will allow money for the eradication of this weed. He has been informed that the same condition exists in many ponds throughout the state, and if the same was done on all ponds, it would run into a tremendous sum of money. There is a possibility from the public health angle that regards this particular pond. The work might be done through this department in connection with the assistance from the town of Arlington. Interested groups in the correcting of this condition could file an article in the Town Warrant for the next Town Meeting to have the Park Department develop the Linwood Street area as a bathing beach area and appropriate money to cover this end of the pond with sand and gravel to assure a safe bathing area and eliminate this weed growth. They may also request of the town, with the assistance of the State, and possibly the county, to appropriate sums of money to have the pond dragged regularly to eliminate this weed growth.

Representative Keenan will appreciate hearing from all persons or groups who are interested in this contemplated project, in order that the work can be unified under one concentrated effort to correct this condition.
